Please Note, Boxing Qld will receive a notification email of your registration and will take a couple of days to set your new club up in the system, this will be set up off the information you provided through this process. So if anything is incorrect it has been done at the point of affiliation.

Please make sure your boxers wait for at least 2 days before attempting to register for the year, to ensure the club is set up and available to them when they register.

This is fail safe if you follow the steps and complete everything as required, you will receive an email, please check all your junk, spam and any other file you can think of before contacting BQ because you didn't receive an email.

Please also check that the email you submitted has the correct spelling and is the right email address.
